

Focus Question:

What words rhyme?

Book Summary:

Picked from a bush of blueberries, a wild berry travels impatiently from the wilderness to a fridge. Unable to sit still, he begins a journey through the refrigerator which allows him to hear different tactics on how others maintain their self control. After learning new strategies from others, the blueberry then sees an opportunity to teach another berry that joins the fridge.

Rhyming Lesson

Provided

Worksheet with a “circle the rhyme” activity along with a free write space for students to come up with a rhyming sentence and illustrate a picture.

Directions

As you read the story, take note of the words that rhyme.
Talk about how a rhyme adds or takes away from a story.
Give time for students to come up with different words that rhyme.
Pass out the paper and have students circle the rhyming word.
Either individually or with a group, have students create their own sentence that rhymes and draw a picture to go with it.

Answer Key

Rhyming Pattern

The Wild Blueberry

Learns Self Control

Circle the word that rhymes

spin

=

cracked

grin

slip

well

=

naughty

good

swell

meat

=

treat

cheese

steak

link

=

found

connect

think

bought

=

spot

berries

bunch

Circle the word that rhymes

spin

=

cracked

grin

slip

well

=

naughty

good

swell

meat

=

treat

cheese

steak

link

=

found

connect

think

bought

=

spot

berries

bunch

Choose two words that rhyme and make your own sentences for a new page in the book!

